

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed are the materials required to file an Ethics Complaint. You, as the Complainant, may file a complaint against a REALTOR® member alleging a violation of the Code of Ethics, providing the complaint:

- 1. is in writing
- 2. is signed
- 3. states the facts surrounding the case
- 4. is filed within 180 days after the facts became known
- 5. is article specific, citing the article(s) of the Code of Ethics alleged in the violation
- 6. specifies each alleged violation of each article cited separately on the article specific sheet

Please attach all documents pertaining to the transaction.

When stating the facts surrounding your complaint, be as specific as possible stating what, where, when, why and how you think each Article was violated. You may cite a Standard of Practice to support the claim. Along with the complaint, and written summary, please include a copy of all the pertinent documents such as, but not limited to, Listing Agreements, Sales and Purchase Agreements, MLS print outs, &/or history, Addendums, inspection reports, etc., along with any affidavits or notarized statements from witnesses. PLEASE do not staple your information – I will need to make copies for all involved. Also, any highlighted areas do not show up on copies, please underline in ink if you wish to draw attention to a certain area. Please do not number the pages of your complaint, they will be numbered by the Professional Standards Administrator.

The Grievance Committee will review the complaint and if all relevant questions have been answered to their satisfaction, and the allegations, if taken as true, could constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics, they shall refer the complaint to the Professional Standards Committee for a hearing by an ethics Hearing Panel. If your complaint is forwarded to the Professional Standards Committee for a hearing you will be notified and asked if you have any challenges to those who may be sitting on the hearing panel, if you will be represented by an attorney, and if you will be bringing witnesses. A minimum of 21 days prior to the hearing you will be provided with the hearing notice, as well as numbered copies of the Complaint and Response.

If the Grievance Committee dismisses the complaint, they shall specify the reason for the dismissal and you may appeal the dismissal to the Board of Directors within twenty (20) days from transmittal of the dismissal noticed using Form E-22, Appeal of Grievance Committee Dismissal of Ethics Complaint. You will be provided this form at that time.

Sincerely,

Laura L. Sallie
